A Real Estate Licensing Project

FTV Real Estate

A Licensing Project

Revolutionising the idea of luxury projects in the nation by transforming lifestyles through better estates that enhances and elevates the lives of individuals is an initiative taken by FTV Real Estate.

Projects under the domain include the 11 strengths of architecture which are F-Retreats, Residence, Villas, Furnished Apartments, Co-works, Malls, Outlet Malls, Hotels, Resorts, House and PSF Value Enhancer.

Designed for those seeking an exceptional balance of home and life, indulging in an awe-inspiring experience of gentility, style and luxury with breathtaking interiors and stunning modernist designs – FTV Real Estate aims to maximise user experience with an enhanced way of living.

FTV Outlet-Malls

- ◆ Based on the design of ancient architecture, urban luxury and opulent living buyers, F-Malls has introduced an international based concept in India.
- ◆ Decked with intricate decor backed with an optimum luxurious buying experience, right from shopping to dining, this array of architecture is followed by many ready-to-wear exclusive brands.
- ◆ This ancient shopping method and real-estate venture has made its way to the modern world bringing authentic buying experience to its high-net worth individuals.
- ◆ Making you set aside your day filled with glamour, fine dine and recreational activities this is your luxury haven right on a street, all at a considerably reduced price.

Features of Outlet Malls

Luxury Buying Experience:

An array/street decked with international brands chosen to suit the tastes of the Ultra-Rich, decor and lighting that switches according to the vibe- giving it a sophisticated buying experience.

Rich Architecture:

Each outlet following a standard architectural style, with interiors suited and designed as per the brand, giving it a versatile and environmental change with each hop.

Array Of Brands:

Carefully selected brands that cater to fashion, wellness, and beauty with the additions to food and beverage outlets that provides a complete experience to the visitor.

Old Age Turned Modern:

An ancient shopping experience, now turned modern leading to more interaction and exploration of each brand, minusing the rushed buying mechanism topped with satisfactory takeaways at the end of the day.

Outlet Malls Industry in India

◆ Post pandemic, shoppers are being more cautious and are hence moving to luxury outlets that allow them to focus on one brand, one at a time at the same time providing them with an array of options side by side.

- ◆ In India, the Indian luxury market is a fast-growing sector, with numbers reaching as far as 300$ Billion till 2030 to the current 30$B. This doesn't even cover the gourmet and fine dining restaurants and recreation facilities, yet.
- ◆ The retail and outlet shopping lifestyle is only estimated to succumb to it's own numbers in the coming years, with the influence of the newest generation and their exposure to the luxury market.

Philosophy

Vision

To bring India at par with the International Real Estate Outlet Malls standard by remaking and redefining the authentic luxury shopping and dining experience that establishes its worth in the eyes of the ultra-rich.

Mission

To enhance the luxury shopping sector in India by bringing back ancient vintage architectural marvels and enabling outlets that maximise customer satisfaction and over-deliverance of luxury products.

Aim

To make F-Outlet Malls the go-to luxury shopping destination and establish itself as a benchmark in the retail real estate universe.

Invent The Future

Just how cryptocurrency took over the world, when at once it was an idea that was known by a very few. FTV Real Estates is a project that is up and coming with establishments that will one day see dominance in the real estate sector.

Early partaking in these establishments will enable exclusive returns and recognition in the world. With FTV , these projects are designed and established with an idea and goal of maximising user experience and enhancing lifestyles that makes way for more developments to occur in the near future.

Testimonials

Sandeep Singh:

Complete Support and Excellent Returns In The Real Estate Sector

It's been a good couple of years since I have been an Authorised Channel Partner for FTV, to say the least the experience with builders and being associated with Fashion TV has been an incredible journey. The backend support, ready brochures, and profit sharing ratio as per closure has changed my view on the real estate sector completely.

Gorpratap:

Unlimited Growth Support and Exposure

As an Authorised Channel Partner for FTV, it is an honour to be all praises when it comes to the real estate sector. The number of connections and amazing closures with exclusive field visits and returns has made me a confident partner for FTV, hoping to create a lot more in the future with this support and confidence from FTV to me.
